| The 2006 Le Piane from Boca is a fabulous wine from one of the smallest appellations in Northern Piedmont. Crushed flowers, mountain herbs and red fruit come together on an exceptionally elegant frame. In 2006, Le Piane has a little more richness than is often the case, while still retaining its typical firm style. This is a fascinating, contemplative wine that needs to be followed over several hours (or days!) in the glass. It is truly magnificent; in fact I think the 2006 is the best Le Piane I have ever tasted. Anticipated maturity: 2014-2026. Importer: Artisan Wine, Norwalk, CT; tel.
